

The DIA Investigator of the Year Award for 2024

The caliber of investigative talent represented by the California Defense Investigators Association (DIA) is unparalleled in the state of California. In recognition of this, each year DIA has the privilege of honoring a stellar defense professional with the Investigator of the Year Award. This award is presented at our yearly Conference to a DIA member who best exemplifies the dedication and determination required to perform the duties of a defense investigator at the highest professional level. The award will be presented during our 2024 Conference on TBD.

We are certain many members are worthy of consideration for this award and we encourage you to take this opportunity to highlight and share their invaluable contributions to criminal defense work. We are accepting nominations for the Investigator of the Year Award through JULY 5, 2024.

Nomination Requirements:

- Must be a DIA active member or associate member in good standing (must have been a member the previous calendar year). Current DIA Board members are ineligible.
- May be nominated by a DIA member, supervisor, or defense attorney.
- The nominating party must submit the nomination and two supporting letters of recommendation from persons familiar with the nominee's work.
- The nomination and supporting letters should describe how the nominee has performed his/her duties in defense of the indigent accused in an exemplary manner and in accordance with the ideals of the DIA, i.e. professionalism, diligence, resourcefulness, and integrity.
- The nomination and supporting letters should be submitted to the Investigator of the Year Award Committee by JULY 5, 2024
